FRIDAY JULY 3 1863.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The sudden departure of the French mail packet for Europe makes us all a little busier this week than usual. The Saintonge is about to be repaired in Rio, and therefore leaves here on the 6th inst. Passengers, however, will be allowed 16s per day for hotel expenses, until the departure of the Bearn.

In Barracas, last Sunday evening, some high words passed between a civilian and the judge. It appears a few friends were standing in Calle Larga, waiting for a diligence, when up walks a suburban policeman, who ordered the parties 'waiting for the waggon' to move on. The policeman had a sword, which he determined to try upon the immoveable gente, by a gentle system of poking Mr Garcia and his friends in the ribs, and the spirited conduct of a young fellow, said to be a son of his worship, the judge, who had a rebenque. Mr Garcia, it appears, got locked up all night in a very unpleasant bedroom, but the next day, on his liberation, he comes out in public print in the 'Nacional.' As many of our friends may be similarly situated, we advise them to be very careful where they stop waiting for the coach.

We regret to see that the poor minister of Hacienda is very ill. Owing to his indisposition, the financial matters before Congress are brought to a stand-still. Forster says he will cure him in half an hour, by applying a paper dollar blister on his temples, and a treasury note poultice to the small of his back. If this wont bring him round, then give him a good Free Bank wash, and a few kill or cure Repudiation Pills. In a couple of hours the Minister will be as lively as ever.

The Argentine consular agent in France, Mr Otto Bemberg, has been acknowledged by the Emperor, and has opened his office in Paris. The lovers of peace and order will be gratified to hear this news. Some even go so far as to say that it will bring ounces down.

The 'Nacion Argentina' has enlarged its columns. We salute most cordially our interesting colleague, but must say that for the size of our city, our native papers are out of all proportion.

The English Government has renewed the contract with the Southampton Mail Packet Company for six years, from the 1st of next January. We were informed that by the terms of the renewal the English mails would arrive in Buenos Ayres three times in two months, but we can see nothing in the papers about it.

One of the passengers of the Amazonia, captured and burnt by the Alabama, called to visit us. He gives a great description of Captain Semmes who treated him very well, and did not put him in irons. He states that Providence, in Rhode Island, and, in fact, all the New England cities, are in a lamentable condition on account of the war. No employment, depreciated money, and constant fear of conscription.

...knowledge the receipt of a most interesting work on diseases of sheep, cows and horses, published in London, and kindly sent us by our indefatigable consul in Liverpool, Mr Phibbs, who seems to take the greatest interest in the prosperity of our sheep farmers and cotton growers. Our friends in the camp will be glad to hear that at last there has been discovered a remedy for the disease which attacks the lambs, called the cramp.

The news from the country districts is very conflicting. In some parts the farmers state that they never re... better year, their flocks have ... and the sheep and capons ... the ... farmers are ... dols for capons, out in the south, towards Ranchos and Chascomus, the grass is completely gone, and the sheep have positively nothing but clay to eat, the lambs are all dying, and as for the cattle, scarcely a cow for mare is to be seen in these districts.

Even in the partido of the Villa Luxan, in some parts the camps are so bad that farmers have moved their flocks off to other lands; but we are happy to say that there is only a partial seca in this partido, as in some places the camps are very good.

By private advices from London we learn that the stockholders of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway Company were expecting news by the French mail which left here on the 14th May, to the effect that all difficulties had been removed. We hope the Governor will use his influence before it is too late, in getting the contract approved. The failure of this company will only give rise to all sorts of litigation, and entail more injury on the country than even the Flores revolution.

To morrow will be the great anniversary of American independence. The American Legation will be closed to business, but open for the reception of friends.

STRAY CATTLE.

We have been requested to call Dr. Alsina's notice to the universal and crying evil of stray cattle. Landed property loses half its value from the vagabond cows of pauper gauchos: the latter have no land, yet manage to keep stock at their neighbour's expense. Cows, not experienced in the Frenchman's method of feeding his horse, pay no respect to 'mojones,' but roam at will over their native prairies, unconscious of trespass, and mindful only of grass. At times our country men, tired of complaints and forcible ejectments, inflict capital punishment on the offender. At Villa Luxan an explosive friend of ours was lately charged with 'lynching' a neighbour's cow, which was found near his corral with a murderous bullet in its hind quarter. The accused was known to have frequently complained of this quadruped's depredations in his quinta yet so unjust is the law on this point that our friend would have been mulcted for defending his property if he did not defeat the charge by denying it in toto and refusing to be tried on circumstantial evidence.

OBSEQUIES OF MR KIERNAN.

The late Mr. Bernard Kiernan, of Moron, was one of the oldest and most esteemed Irish residents of this country. During a long life, which reached the advanced number of seventy-six winters, he had made a wide circle of friends. His funeral obsequies took place at Moron Church on Wednesday in presence of an immense concourse of natives and foreigners. A special train left town the same morning, returning at three p.m., for the convenience of all parties anxious to pay a last tribute of respect to the deceased. The sacred edifice was draped in mourning; the choristers of St. Domingo and the Cathedral lent their assistance; the High Mass was sung with great solemnity, and after the obsequies a splendid dejeuner was laid out in the hotel. Among those who attended the rites were V. Rev. A. D. Fahy, Messrs J. Kiernan, Coffin, Maxwell, and several others whose names we did not ascertain.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By private letters dated 22nd May we learn that notwithstanding the rise in Buenos Ayrean Bonds, public enthusiasm is cooling down respecting River P. prospects, and capitalists are shy to invest in any of our schemes. Queensland, Australia has taken the wind out of our sails, and Englishmen are beginning to think even Africa or India better than South America: they say this country may a few centuries hence come to something, but, "ci vuol pazienza," for the present our better organised neighbours have the preference.

The 'Times' is about to publish a review of the R. "Plate Hand-book," and the literary world is promised a new periodical to be called the "River Plate Journal." Some faint hopes of introducing cotton cultivation, have led Manchester spinners to hold one or two conferences on the subject, and it is possible a joint stock Co similar to the Algerian cotton association may be formed, with the object of making plantations in La Plata.

Mr. Wheelwright's success was regarded in London as another of those remarkable strokes of fortune which characterise his life; but it is seriously doubted whether he shall be able to raise the funds, on so distant and unknown an enterprise. For his greater difficulty, the delays of the Chascomus railway, which has already lost a year through scruples of the B. Ayrean Government, cause much distrust on the Stock Exchange.

Mr Rickard had some of his machinery ready for shipment, under charge of several experienced workmen, and intends to leave England in time for the Bordeaux packet of July 4th. There is no news of emigration to these countries. Twenty copies of the 'River Plate Handbook' were disposed of immediately on their arrival in England.

It is not thought the rupture with Brazil will be serious, although Lord Russell 'snubbed' Don Pedro's minister, and the latter, in view of Government confirming Mr Christie's conduct, has demanded his passports.

The London and Brazilian, and Anglo Portuguese Banks, have been amalgamated. £200,000 in sovereigns was shipped for Rio Janeiro in the Southampton packet of June 9th.

ARGENTINE CONSULATE.

Liverpool, 23rd May, 1863.

Messrs M. G. and E. T. Mulhall,
Buenos Ayres,

Dear Sirs,

Under separate cover, by book post, I forward you the long delayed number of the 'Bath and West of England Journal,' which contains the most admirable and practical treatment ever published for lamb disease. I have hastily glanced over the contents of this essay, and underlined a few remarks which appeared especially applicable to Buenos Ayres and the provinces, and indeed to all interested in sheep-farming in the Plate.

White turnips, at least, can easily be grown in sufficient quantities for invalid lambs; and rock salt is far from difficult to procure; and a few lumps thrown in a 'rodeo' would be beneficial to the whole flock. In the Journal there is also a very valuable article (not, however, by Doctor Crisp) on horses, and some hints well worthy of notice.

Doctor Crisp's work only wants reading to ascertain its value.

I remain, dear sir,
Your obedient servant,
SAMUEL R. PHIBBS.

CONFEDERATE STEAMERS ON THE COAST OF BRAZIL.

The 'Florida' entered Ceara, 4th June. The Government granted a permission to remain in port twenty-four hours, during which she took in coals and landed eleven men, part crew of the American ship Crown Point of Boston, for California, which she burnt on the 14th May in lat. 3 30 South. The Commonwealth was burnt on the 17th April by the Florida, in lat 22 S., long 31 W. The British schooner Adelphi landed at Rio Grande 25th May, six men, part of the crew of the Commonwealth, put on board of her by the Florida. The captain of the Commonwealth was transferred to the French ship Callao, bound to Havre, and six other men of the crew were put on board the Dutch schooner Alma, destination unknown.

The 'Alabama' burnt on 29th May, lat 15 S. long. 35 W. the American ship 'Jabez Snow' from Cardiff to Montevideo. On 2nd June she burnt in lat 15 S, long 34, 30 W, American barque Amazonian, from New York to Montevideo. Forty-one persons, the officers, crews, and passengers of these burnt vessels, were put on board the Han. sch. Widder, which arrived at Rio on the 11th inst. The captain of the Alabama provided the Wilder with stores and provisions necessary, and recommended the master to claim passage money of the American Consul.

The 'Georgia' captured on 5th June, fifteen miles N E. of Cape Frio, the American ship George Griswald, bound from Cardiff to Rio Janeiro with coals. The vessel was released upon giving a bond for $100,000. On the 14th of June, lat 22 40 S, long 36 30 W, the American barque Good Hope was burnt, bound from Boston to the Cape. The captain and crew arrived at Rio on the 21st instant, on board the American barque J. W. Leaver, bound from Boston to Aleolaske. She was captured and released on giving a bond for 15,000 dols.

The above particulars we have been kindly favoured by the gentlemanly secretary of the foreigners club.

TELEGRAPH DESPATCH.

The best joke about town is the telegraphic despatch from Moreno the other day, respecting the Chacho. The news spread like wild-fire that the Chacho had been beaten in a regular pitched battle. Many parties inquired from whence the news came, but no one could say; at last it was discovered that a telegraphic message had arrived that morning from Moreno, and had been forwarded to the President. A message was immediately sent out to know who was the chasque, answer—a captain; What about the Chacho? answer—defeated. With such a decisive reply of course the public were completely at ease on the Penaloza question. When later on it was discovered that the Moreno despatches were something like the Lisbon telegrams at the sailing of the packet. It is pleasing, however, to know that there is such a thing in the country as a working telegraph wire, and it is perfectly immaterial at present whether it conveys lies or truths.

CANUELAS.

June 25th

Local incidents are few since my last. The church is to be commenced again. Last night the Municipal Corporation came to an understanding with the architect to build it to the point it was in when it fell for 75,000 dols., he puts the remainder himself, besides holding himself responsible for the solidity of the work. Some people consider that 200,000 dols. won't put it where it was.

In some of the places about here, where the land is overstocked, sheep are dying fast, in flocks of from 1500 or 200 above twenty are lying dead frequently, five, ten, and fifteen every day is common.

Probably ye did not hear yet of another murder committed in the Monte on one Reynoso, medianero of of Dr. Lewis Mariano de la Rosa, by Leeno Avilo, at the Pulperia de Carballo, Toteral, on the 15th inst., both upwards of sixty years. Drink was the cause.

BRITON MEDICAL AND GENERAL LIFE ASSOCIATION.

The ninth annual meeting of this association was held April 30, at 429 West Strand. Dr. G. H. Barlow occupied the chair. The report was read by Mr. John Messent, secretary, and detailed the progress of the association during the past year. 2810 proposals had been received for assuring £653,238; 2,023 policies had been issued. The new income was £15,275 13s 6d, being more than 50 per cent. over the income of the previous year. £40,469 10s 4d had been carried to the reserve fund. Other unmistakable proofs of prosperity were given and the share and policy holders present were much gratified at the position which the society had attained. The chairman lucidly explained the peculiar features of the office, paying a tribute of respect to the medical profession, and referring to the industry and energy of their secretary, to whom the present success of the institution was mainly due. A dividend of 6 per cent was declared. This Company has an agency in Buenos Ayres, at No. 7 Calle Mayo.

THE FORTIN MURDER.

Salto, June 28, 1863.

Having seen in your journal of Thursday last a description of the murderer of poor Farrell, I beg to make a remark or two. I learn from authentic information that he has already disposed of his whiskers and large head of hair. You also make mention in the above alluded public notice, that the culprit is supposed to have gone to the north camps. If such be the fact, there are residing in the north some anxious friends of the deceased, who will do their utmost to track and arrest this blood-thirsty ruffian. The term blood thirsty is in this case fully applicable, as this is not the first deed of a similar nature which he has executed. His arrival in this country was owing to a successful escape from justice in North America.

As a relative of the unfortunate deceased; I beg that you will insert the following advertisement:—

$ 2,500

REWARD.

A relative of the late poor Farrell, offers the above reward for the apprehension of, or any particulars relating to the man Charles, or Charley Keuna, who stabbed his unfortunate victim, in the Fortin de Areco, on the 7th of June.

ASSASINATION IN MONTEVIDEO.

We regret to learn that an amiable, accomplished, and handsome young lady, named Picardi, has fallen a victim to the dagger of a jealous lover, who in a fit of phrenzy stabbed her mortally. By last account she was still living, but her death was momentarily expected.

THE ORIENTAL GOVERNMENT.

We have had numerous complaints from English residents in Banda Oriental that all excesses are committed by the Government troops while Flores pays honorably, even liberality, for whatever he takes. This is no doubt perfectly true and no less damaging to President Berro's popularity among our countrymen. While all regard Flores as the ultimate cause of Mr, Smith's murder and such other enormities, they cannot conceal their dissatisfaction of a Government whose own troops are more dangerous to peaceful settlers, than the fillibusters themselves. The first duty of a ruler is to preserve order, and if he be incompetent for the task, he is useless; we pay taxes and maintain an administration for public protection, failing which condition, our money and loyalty are thrown away.

It is nevertheless questionable whether with these ill-starred republican institutions a better or more solid Government could be found to succeed President Berro's and really his efforts to see justice done are highly credible. In Smith's case, notwithstanding the demoralization of Olid's forces, and the difficulty to seize the murderers, a strong determination has been so far successful as to apprehend three of the ruffians. If we compare this with Dr Acosta's insolent bravado in the G. Monte murders, where the criminal went about unmolested, and has not to this day been arrested, we shall have reason to thank the Oriental Government, in the name of justice. The British Minister (Lettsome) equally deserves praise for his firmness and activity, in this trying time. As a proof of the merits of both we publish the following letter, favoured us by an English gentleman who has been paid for 200 horses, taken without any formality from his estancia, and who is the party alluded to hereinafter.

"Montevideo, June 26th, 1863.
"Ministry of Foreign Affairs
William G. Lettsom, Esq.,
H E M. Minister.

The undersigned Minister of Foreign Affairs acknowledges the favour to day received from W. G. Lettsom, British Chargé d'Affaires, enclosing a petition from an English resident estanciero, N, N, who states that a number of horses were taken from his establishment without payment or voucher, as prescribed.

The undersigned, as is known to the British Minister, gave orders that no animals should be taken, whenever requisite, without the proper legal acknowledgment being given to the owner. The present case is, therefore, to be regretted, and Government after making proper inquiries, will take care Mr. N. N. shall suffer no loss. In case it be impossible to make such inquiries, the undersigned will accept as the number of horses to be paid for, whatever the British Minister, of his knowledge, will indicate.

The undersigned takes this occasion to beg Mr Lettsom to rest assured that Government will injure no one's rights, they, as well as all other inhabitants of the Republic. will find the doors of the Government House open to admit them, where their complaints will be considerately attended to and remedied, without the necessity of diplomatic intervention, although the British Minister's visits are always agreeable"

This is so different from the usual method, 'ocurrase a quien corresponde,' that we are happy to find so good a spirit animate the Oriental Government in the present crisis.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The overdue American mail has at length arrived, and the suspense felt in regard to the military movements in Virginia is ended. General Hooker has recrossed the Rappahannock, and resumed his old place at Falmouth. He crossed the river on the Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, his rear guard having severe fighting before it got over. On the Thursday the President and General Halleck visited the camp, and subsequently Mr. Stanton issued an official bulletin in which he stated that General Hooker's operations had failed, but without serious disaster to the organisation and efficiency of the army. He added that offensive operations would be speedily resumed. General Stoneman is stated to have been perfectly successful in his operations, having advanced to within a short distance of Richmond. There were rumours at New York that General Heintzelmann was to supersede General Hooker, and the Democratic journals were urging the reappointment of General M'Clellan.

On the Mississippi success attends the Federal arms. The latest achievements reported is the capture of the Grand Gulf, from which the Confederates had been driven. Before abandoning the place they blew up their ammunition and spiked their guns.

The Democrats had been holding meetings in New York, at which they denounced the continuance of the war, but expressed perfect willingness to engage in a conflict with England.

Telegrams from Lemberg state that four bodies of insurgents are under arms in Eastern Podolia, and that in Little Russia and Western Russia are no less than eighty-four districts in a state of insurrection. The 'Czas' of Cracow has a leading article upon the meetings of Polish-sympathisers held in England, and declares that their moral effect will be felt through Poland. A detachment of insurgents has succeeded in landing at a place on the Baltic shore. Some of the recent conflicts between the Russians and the insurgents have brought the insurrection within a very short distance of Warsaw itself. In Warsaw the National Government appears to exercise a power which is almost absolute, and which may be fairly said to have superseded that of the Russian authorities. Indeed these latter are only encamped in the Polish capital—nothing more. The 'Invalide Russe' admits that the Russian army on its recent footing was commonly regarded as not strong enough to meet the emergency.

Count Persigny has published a circular addressed to the Prefect of the Seine in reference to the candidature of M. Thiers and the determination of the Government to oppose it. Had M. Thiers presented himself merely as the historian, Count Persigny states that he would not have met with Imperial opposition, but as he has come forward in the name of a party which had caused calamities to France, it would be impossible for the present Government to lend him its support. The excitement in France on the subject of the elections continues to increase, and the struggles of the "Independent" candidates to obtain a chance of due publicity for their addresses are occasionally ingenious and amusing. M. Baroche's health is mending—his ailment having, it is said, been mainly caused by the audacious conduct of his son, who ventured to go right in the face of Count Persigny's terrible authority.

Lamartine, the poet, is represented as very dangerously ill. Only yesterday we announced the death of his wife—an English Lady.

It appears that Austria, France, and England, have not yet agreed about the propositions they were to submit to Russia.

The reply of the Russian Government to the note of the Porte upon the Polish question is of a most conciliatory character.

A note written by a rebel surgeon and found on a prisoner, says that the losses of Gen. Lee's army amount to 18,000. This was written after the battle. Lee himself in a late confidential despatch, intercepted and brought to our lines, says his losses are terrific. The fight in Richmond was quite as great as at first represented though the rebel papers are silent on the subject.

St Petersburg, May 17

The 'Invalide Russe' reports that the insurrection has broken out in the Governments of Witebsk and Mohilev. The peasants in these provinces, who had been forced to change their religion by the Emperor Nicholas, have joined the insurgents in large numbers.

Warsaw, May 17

Six hundred sappers are repairing the ancient walls of the city. Twenty thousand soldiers on furlough have been seized in the district of Kyow, and are to be incorporated in equal numbers in the armies of Poland and Lithuania. The detachment of the Imperial Guard in this city having refused to march against the insurgents on the plea that it is their business to defend fortresses, and not to wander about in woods where they get killed, their commanding officer has sent them back to St Petersburg.

Brody, May 22

A portion of the 5th 'corps d'armée,' stationed on the frontier of Bessarabia, has been suddenly ordered to proceed to Podolia, but the order was countermanded shortly after, as it appears that fears are entertained of the entrance into Poland of an armed body of Poles from Turkey.

Milford, May 5

To President Jackson—Yesterday, General Jackson penetrated to the rear of the enemy, and drove him from all his positions from the Wilderness to within one mile of Chancellorsville. He was engaged at the same time in front by two of Longstreet's divisions.

Many prisoners were taken, and the enemy's loss in killed and wounded is large.

This morning the battle was renewed. He was dislodged from all his positions around Chancellorsville, and driven back towards the Rappahannock, over which he is now retreating.

We have again to thank Almighty God for a great victory.

I regret to state that General Paxton was killed, General Jackson severely, and Generals Heth and A P Hill, slightly wounded.

Signed, R E LEE,
General Commanding.

There was a great firmness in the ounce market to-day—some say owing to a rumour that large specie remittances are going by the Saintonge. Such may be the case, but we don't think it. Bolivianos, no doubt, may be shipped, but their quantity has a very remote effect upon doubloons. Ounces seem steadier than usual; it is hinted, owing to the indisposition of the Minister and the stagnation of his schemes.

Money continues still in good demand; but the Bank, we hear, is setting a good example to some of our private banks, and renewing liberally.

Much anxiety is expressed as to the report of the committee on the Peto Betts' contract: it has now been so long delayed that many begin to think the delay is done on purpose. Our advices from England respecting this company are very important, and we doubt if we exaggerate the magnitude of the enterprise when we say that the credit of this country in England hangs upon the fate of the contract.

The Menay did not arrive to-day as was expected but she is looked for to-morrow morning.

The Braz. war steamer Araguaby is expected from Montevideo bound up the Uruguay.

On the Bolsa to day we notice one large transaction in Bolivianos 12,000 sold at the rate of 21 5|8 to the ounce, there was also a small transaction of 800 done at 21 6|8. These Bolivianos we believe are going to Europe.

EXCHANGE.

A few bills have been passed at 66|6 to-day to the extent of about £3000, as, we have been informed. Our country readers complain that we do not publish the rate of £1 sterling in small drafts, but the fact is that there is a decided objection both on the part of the Banks and Bankers to publish their rates. The rate we think this packet will be $145 to 144 per one pound sterling, at this rate the drafts on the Provincial and National banks Ireland were issued per last mail.
